The aim of this study is to understand the law relating to land in the cosmology of Osing society and the cosmology of Osing society. How the law relating to land in the cosmology of Osing was understood and how the Osing society reached the harmony when they faced the changing as a primary question. On the other hand, it was also intended to analyze the events/process related to the law relating to land when the changing took place, and the cosmology’s role in the changing, mainly in reaching the harmony. By constructivism paradigm and legal anthropology was mainly to assist/guide the society in the efforts concerning with the changing situation faced by them. In addition, the cosmology assured the society reach the harmony in relation to dialectics between the new presented by the changing and the old recognized the society.