AUTHOR AFFILIATION AND AI USAGE DECLARATION

Manuscript Title:

I, the undersigned Corresponding Author, hereby declare on behalf of all co-authors that:

1. All authors listed in this manuscript are genuinely affiliated with the institutions stated in the manuscript. The affiliations provided are accurate, current, and correctly represent the institutional association of each author at the time the research was conducted and/or the manuscript was submitted.
2. No author has intentionally misrepresented, fabricated, or falsified any institutional affiliation. All institutional information has been provided in good faith and with the consent of the respective authors.
3. The manuscript was prepared without the use of generative artificial intelligence (AI) tools for writing, drafting, paraphrasing, or generating scientific content. Any intellectual contribution, analysis, interpretation, and writing presented in this manuscript are solely the work of the authors.
4. The authors understand that providing false information regarding authorship, affiliation, or AI usage constitutes a breach of publication ethics and may result in manuscript rejection, article retraction, notification to affiliated institutions, or other actions deemed appropriate by the journal.
5. Should any discrepancy, misrepresentation, ethical violation, or misconduct related to authorship, affiliation, or AI usage be identified before or after publication, the authors accept full responsibility and agree to cooperate with the journal in any investigation or corrective action.

I certify that the information provided in this declaration is true, accurate, and complete to the best of my knowledge.
